The marriage of Miss Edna Reck and Mr. William C. Cardridge took place Wednesday, June 30, at the country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reck, near Howard, Kan. The Rev. Mr. Fred of Howard read the marriage service. The bride was attended by Miss Louisa Hedges of Howard and Mr. Cardridge by his brother, Mr. Bert Cardridge, as his best man. Before the ceremony Miss Violet Criger sang "O Promise Me."

The hour of the marriage was high noon, and after the service a wedding luncheon was served to about thirty guests. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Cardridge left for a motor trip to Colorado. After their honeymoon journey they will come to Topeka and will be at home at apartments in the Devon.

Mr. Cardridge's sister, Mrs. A. R. Mulholland, Mr. Mulholland and their son, Edward, and Mr. Bert Cardridge went to Howard to attend the wedding. The bride is a graduate of the State Normal school at Emporia, and taught last year in the public schools. Mr. Cardridge is a member of a prominent Topeka family. He has the position of claim agent for the Rock Island Railway company.

An event of special interest to society next week is the marriage of Miss Ruth Wilson and Mr. Wendell L. Lyman, which is to be solemnized Monday, July 5. The wedding is to be simple in all its details, and only relatives will be present. Miss Wilson's sisters, Mrs. J. E. Furry and Mrs. Everett Dallas, and Mr. Furry and Mr. Dallas are in Topeka to remain until after the wedding.

The marriage of Miss Juliet Pettyjohn and Mr. J. C. Denious, of Dodge City, took place Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pettyjohn of Dodge City.

The bride was dressed in white net trimmed with white satin, and she wore a short tulle veil and carried flowers. She was attended by two little girls of her neighborhood, who stretched ribbons to mark the bridal path. The wedding music was the Lohengrin Wedding March.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Denious went for a wedding trip to Colorado, and after their return they will make their home in Dodge City.

The bride's sister, a member of the state legislature last session, she was a Washburn college student, and a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta society. Among her sorority sisters who went to Dodge City for the wedding were: Miss Erma Zuta-vern of Great Bend, Miss Helen Guild of Sabatha, Miss Marguerite Seltzer of Holton, Miss Helen Johnston and Miss Adelaide Johnston of Leavenworth, Miss Isabel Savage and Miss Julia Morton of Kansas City, Miss Maude Hawley of Herington and Miss Josephine Tice of Dodge City.

Miss Seltzer and Miss Guild came to Topeka from Dodge City to visit friends here, and have left to return to their homes.

Mr. Denious is managing editor of the Dodge City paper, and a man well known over the state among newspaper people.

The West Side Forestry club has issued its year book for the new season. The book cover is white, with a tree for the cover design. The club adopted the alfalfa blossom as its flower. The present officers are: Mrs. J. C. Emahizer, president; Mrs. Walter Ashton Smith, vice president; Mrs. Ella B. Nelson, secretary; Mrs. William Macfarren, corresponding secretary; Mrs. D. H. Forbes, treasurer; Mrs. Ward Burlingame, club forester; Mrs. M. A. Low, club historian. The committee who arranged the program for this year are: Mrs. D. O. Coe, Mrs. J. F.
